Impress Your Visiting Friends and Family at State Museum

Instead of dropping off your visiting friends and family at the Alaska State Museum when they come to visit you this summer, how about wowing them with a personal tour of your favorite things on display in the galleries at the State Museum? This First Friday night, May 4, beginning at 5:30, museum staff will present a one-hour session on how to give a meaningful tour for your summer visitors, with insights that are usually reserved for museum docents. This is a free public event and will highlight both the permanent displays and the special summer exhibits. Registration is not required.

The museum is still on winter hours: 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Tuesday through Saturday. General admission is $3. Visitors 18 and under are admitted free of charge. An annual pass that allows unlimited visits to the Alaska State Museum and the Sheldon Jackson Museum in Sitka is available for $15. The museum will go on summer hours May 13.

Assistance is available for visitors with special needs. Please contact Visitor Services at 465-2901 before the visit.
