

ALASKA POSITIVE

AN EXHIBITION ORGANIZED AND TRAVELED BY THE ALASKA STATE MUSEUM
SPONSORED BY THE FRIENDS OF THE ALASKA STATE LIBRARY, ARCHIVES & MUSEUM

Opening Reception: Friday, November 4th from 4:30PM - 7:00PM, FREE ENTRY

Sponsored by the Friends of the State Library, Archives, and Museum.

DEMENTED COAL PARADOX, photograph by Larry McNeil

Now in its 46th year, Alaska Positive is a juried photo exhibit, a biennial series meant to encourage photography as an art form in the state. Alaska Positive will be on exhibit at the Alaska State Museum from November 4, 2016 through January 21, 2017. A statewide tour follows.

To watch a recording of juror Larry McNeil's lecture online, visit the Alaska Division of Libraries, Archives and Museums' YouTube page: <https://youtube/14RBERYSpAA>

395 WHITTIER STREET
907-465-2901

HOURS: 10-4, TUES-SAT
museums.alaska.gov

