Summary
After reading the story of Benny Benson, the designer of the Alaska flag, students select other famous Alaskans to research. Students share their information in a written or oral report.

Estimated Time
120 minutes + time for research (2 - 3 class periods)

In this activity students will focus on the following:

Alaska Content Standards
English/Language Arts:
C1-4. Complete projects
D4. Explain and defend a position orally, in writing and with visual aids as appropriate.

History:
B2. Understand the people that have shaped the history of the state
C1. Use appropriate technology to access, retrieve, organize and present historical information

Assessments
• Use appropriate scoring guides to evaluate the different products. Have students respond by writing or saying what they would do differently to improve their project.
• Provide a “Visitors Comments” book or sheet of paper for others to record their thoughts and ideas. Have the students read the comments and discuss what they would do differently or the same on another project.

Activity
Step One: Discuss and make chart
• Ask the students “What does ‘famous’ mean?” Encourage as many ideas as possible without making any judgments about accuracy.
• Ask the students “Who do you think of when I say, ‘name a famous person’?” Make a list of the different names on the board.
• Ask the students to help organize this list by thinking of ways the people listed are similar or different. These might include types of work or what made them famous (sports, entertainment, government officials) men or women, dead or alive, Alaskan or from other places, etc.
• Show the students ‘Chart: Famous Alaskans.’ Tell them they need to find the information to fill in the row about Benny on the chart from the story you are going to read. You may want to review a few vocabulary words before reading. (See Vocabulary.)

Step Two: Read and research
• Have your students read the story of Benny Benson on pages 10–11. (Depending on your student’s reading ability, you may read it to them or see “Techniques to Vary the Reading.”) Work together to fill in the facts about Benny on the chart.
• Tell the students that Benny Benson is considered a “Famous Alaskan.” Ask the students what other famous Alaskans they can name. Make a list. Have the students discuss how they could find out information about the other Alaskans.
• Help the students choose a person to research. The class may want to learn about “famous Alaskans” in their community or from a particular time in history.
Select presentation format(s) that are acceptable for sharing the information. Such as a poster, one-page written report, oral presentation, picture with captions, etc. Create a scoring guide or rubric to help the students understand what is expected from using the format selected. (See Scoring Guides: Famous Alaskans)

Step Three: Present and evaluate
- Depending on the presentation format selected, provide enough time so that each student can present and receive feedback about how well he/she did. Display the reports, posters or pictures in the classroom or a hallway. Consider making a collection of the students’ work, putting the reports together and printing a book for the school and classroom library.
